

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA
FORT WAYNE DIVISION

FRANCISCO M. VAZQUEZ,

Plaintiff,

v.

CAUSE NO. 1:23-CV-314-HAB-SLC

MARCIA LINSKY,

Defendant.

OPINION AND ORDER

Francisco M. Vazquez, a prisoner without a lawyer, filed a complaint against Public Defender Marcia Linsky. ECF 1. “A document filed pro se is to be liberally construed, and a pro se complaint, however inartfully pleaded, must be held to less stringent standards than formal pleadings drafted by lawyers.” Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89, 94 (2007) (quotation marks and citations omitted). Nevertheless, under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A, the court must review the merits of a prisoner complaint and dismiss it if the action is frivolous or malicious, fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief.

In this case, Mr. Vazquez is suing Public Defender Linsky, the attorney who is representing him in his criminal case. ECF 1 at 2. He appears to be disappointed with Public Defender Linsky’s representation because he asserts that she has not responded to his requests for a bond reduction hearing or mental health evaluation, and has not yet produced any discovery materials. Id. Mr. Vazquez believes Public Defender Linsky’s representation is inadequate because she advised him that the issues he sent her letters about have not been addressed. Id. He further claims that Public Defender Linsky's delay in working on his case has deprived him of his right to a speedy trial. Id.

In order to state a claim under § 1983 a plaintiff must allege: (1) that defendants deprived him of a federal constitutional right; and (2) that the defendants acted under color of state law." Savory v. Lyons, 469 F.3d 667, 670 (7th Cir. 2006). While the conduct of private actors can transform them into state actors for § 1983 purposes, the facts must permit an inference that the defendants' actions are "fairly attributable to the state." L.P. v. Marian Catholic High Sch., 852 F.3d 690, 696 (7th Cir. 2017) (quoting Lugar v. Edmondson Oil Co., 457 U.S. 922, 937 (1982)). In the case of a criminal defense attorney, even an appointed public defender, the actions of the attorney are not fairly attributable to the State and the attorney is not acting under color of state law. Polk County v. Dodson, 454 U.S. 312, 325 (1981) ("[A] public defender does not act under color of state law when performing a lawyer's traditional functions as counsel to a defendant in a criminal proceeding."); McDonald v. White, 465 F. App'x 544, 548 (7th Cir. 2012) (dismissing claims against public defender as frivolous because "court-appointed public defender is not a state actor, and thus cannot be sued under 42 U.S.C. § 1983"). Therefore, Mr. Vazquez cannot proceed against Public Defender Linsky.

"The usual standard in civil cases is to allow defective pleadings to be corrected, especially in early stages, at least where amendment would not be futile." Abu-Shawish v. United States, 898 F.3d 726, 738 (7th Cir. 2018). However, "courts have broad discretion to deny leave to amend where . . . the amendment would be futile." Hukic v.

Aurora Loan Servs., 588 F.3d 420, 432 (7th Cir. 2009). For the reasons previously explained, such is the case here.

For these reasons, this case is DISMISSED under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A.

SO ORDERED on August 1, 2023.
